ABOUT THE SOUTH AFRICAN COUNCIL FOR SERVICE PROFESSIONS

The South African Council for Social Service Professions (SACSSP) is a statutory body established in terms of section 2 of the Social Service Professions Act 110 of 1978. The SACSSP has two professional boards under its auspices: i.e. the Professional Board for Social Work and the Professional Board for Child and Youth Care Work. The SACSSP, in conjunction with its two professional boards, guides and regulates the professions of social work and child youth care work in aspects pertaining to registration, education and training, professional conduct and ethical behaviour, ensuring continuing professional development, and fostering compliance with professional standards. It is protecting the integrity of the social service professions as well as the interest of the public at large. In order to safeguard the public and indirectly the professions, registration in terms of the Act with the SACSSP is a prerequisite for practising social work and child and youth care work. This includes social workers, social auxiliary workers, student social workers, student social auxiliary workers, child and youth acre workers, auxiliary child and youth care workers, student child and youth care workers, and student auxiliary child and youth care workers.

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 In alignment with international practice, the Professional Board of Social Work (PBSW), under the auspices of the South African Council of Social Service Professions (SACSSP) established a system of Continuing Professional Development (CPD) to enhance and ensure the quality of social work services. Through CPD, the knowledge, attitude and skills base of social work practice is enhanced.

1.2 In principle, the Professional Board for Social Work and the South African Council for Social Service Professions is committed to a CPD system that is transparent, flexible, cost-effective, user-friendly and accessible to all practitioners. Continuing professional development enables and encourages social workers and social auxiliary workers to share and train other social workers and social auxiliary workers on new knowledge and expertise. This policy should be read in conjunction with the Social Service Professions Act 110 of 1978.

2. SUPERSEDING OF EXISTING POLICY

This policy supersedes the Continuing Professional Development Policy dated 1 April 2010 and authorises its withdrawal.

3. AIM OF THE POLICY

The aim of the policy is to ensure continuing professional development of a high quality.

4. SCOPE OF THE POLICY

The scope of the policy addresses the following:
(a) CPD legislative framework;

(b) roles and responsibilities in respect of CPD;

(c) criteria for CPD activities;

(d) CPD application requirements;

(e) CPD application process; and

(f) portfolios of evidence (PoE).

5. POLICY OBJECTIVES

This policy strives to:

5.1 Ensure that social workers and social auxiliary workers retain and continuously develop their skills and scientific, professional attitude and knowledge by enabling them to:
(a) develop scientific knowledge, skills and competencies;

(b) provide quality services that are relevant and appropriate, especially in the South African context;

(c) improve services rendered to individuals, families, groups, communities and organisations;

(d) facilitate reflective practice;

(e) keep abreast of current trends, research and developments in the profession;

(f) assert their professional view in multi-sectorial and multi-disciplinary contexts;

(g) function effectively as a member of the multi-disciplinary team;

(h) be motivated to continue with practising the profession;

(i) be supported by and network with other professionals;

(j) reduce occupational stress and other related ailments;

(k) create opportunities to develop own business in providing CPD activities; and

(l)   conduct themselves ethically at all times.

5.2   Ensure that the quality of CPD activities is of a high and appropriate standard.

6.   APPLICABILITY

The policy is applicable to social workers, social auxiliary workers and CPD training providers.

7.   POLICY STATEMENT

The Professional Board for Social Work maintains professional standards that promote excellence in practice through a compulsory system in which all social workers and social auxiliary workers registered with the South African Council for Social Service Professions should comply.

8.   POLICY PRINCIPLES

The following principles apply in the implementation of this policy:

(a)   Accountability: The policy complies with the requirements of all applicable legislation and policies.

(b)   Administrative justice: Quality assurance processes are executed in an administrative just manner; which require openness, timeous notice, reporting and opportunity to respond or appeal.

(c)   Appropriateness: The policy is responsive to social, economic, cultural and political conditions within the framework of the social work profession;.

(d)   Collaboration: There is recognition that quality assurance takes place in collaboration with other role players.

(e)   Democracy and participation: The value of democracy and participation recognises both rights and responsibilities of training providers, social workers and social auxiliary workers.

(f)   Developmental approach: CPD processes embrace the developmental approach for training providers, social workers and social auxiliary workers.

(g)   Efficiency and effectiveness: training provision should be achieved with efficiency and cost-effectiveness.

(h)   Equality: Training providers, social workers and social auxiliary workers are treated equally and without preference.

(i)   Fairness: CPD processes are implemented in line with this policy.

(j)   Partnership: This policy values partnership in the professional development of social service professionals.

(k)   Transparency: Access to information, and openness regarding administrative and management procedures.

9.   AUDITABLE OUTCOMES

The CPD process within the SACSSP shall be measured against the following indicators:

(a)   well managed applications and appeals;

(b)   assessed applications;

(c)   timeous feedback to applicants;

(d)   management of received and assessed Portfolios of Evidence;

(e)   an accurate training provider database; and

(f)   satisfied customers.

10. LIST OF APPLICABLE LEGISLATION AND POLICIES

The CPD policy framework is developed from the following legislation:

(a) Social Service Professions Act 110 of 1978;

(b) National Qualifications Framework Act 67 of 2008;

(c) Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000;

(d) Promotion of Administrative Justice Act 3 of 2000;

(e) Skills Development Act 97 of 1998;

(f) Skills Levies Act 9 of 1999; and

(g) Policy for Social Service Practitioners, Chapter 7 (2017)

11. CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT REQUIREMENTS

11.1   All registered social workers (excluding students) are required to obtain a minimum of twenty (20) CPD points annually, or fourty (40) points over a period of two (2) year cycle.

11.2   All registered social auxiliary workers (excluding students) are required to obtain a minimum of ten (10) CPD points annually or twenty (20) points over a period of two (2) year cycle.

11.3   At least one CPD activity in a two year cycle must focus exclusively on the professional code of conduct for social workers and social auxiliary workers.

11.4   A maximum of ten (10) accumulated points may be forwarded to the next year for a maximum period of one year.

11.5   Veteran social workers older than 65 are required to obtain a minimum of fifteen (15) CPD points annually, or thirty (30) points over a period of two (2) year cycle.

11.6   CPD points should be accumulated from a combination of activities and cannot be obtained from one single CPD category. This is to encourage professionals to participate in a variety of activities, to ensure different levels of learning, participation and exposure.

11.7   Each CPD activity is approved after assessment and points are allocated against the set criteria. CPD points are awarded to trainees on completion of the CPD activity.

12. CATEGORIES OF CPD ACTIVITIES AND POINT ALLOCATIONS

12.1 Overview of categories

12.1.1   There are three categories of CPD activities - group, individual and online activities:

(a) CPD group activities are approved after being assessed by the CPD assessment panel and points awarded according to the set criteria of this policy.

(b) CPD points for individual activities are awarded according to the set criteria of this policy after the PoE was requested, submitted and assessed by the CPD assessment panel.

(c) Online CPD group activities are approved after being assessed by the CPD assessment panel and points awarded according to the set criteria of this policy.

12.1.2   Social workers and social auxiliary workers are required to keep a Portfolio of Evidence (PoE) for all approved group and individual activities attended.

12.2 Group activities

12.2.1   A group activity is any organised event, either face to face or via any electronic means, where at least three (3) practitioners are grouped or assembled for the purposes of sharing information, building knowledge, developing skills and/or influencing attitudes on a subject of professional interest.

12.2.2 Group activities include conferences, workshops, seminars, short learning programmes, group discussions and information sessions. These activities require approval from the CPD assessment panel prior to the commencement of the activity.

12.2.3 Types of group activities:

(a) A conference/congress/symposium/seminar is a gathering of people who meet in a local, regional, provincial, national or international context to discuss a particular issue of concern reflected in a specific theme and sub themes. Minimum duration of 2 hours up to a mximum duration of 5 days.

(b) A workshop refer to a gathering at which a group of people engage in intensive discussions and activities on a particular subject with the purpose of analysing existing knowledge, expanding the knowledge base through new ideas, sharpening of skills and building of competencies. The intention is to address policy, practice and educational challenges. Non-credit bearing short courses of no more than 5 days on a particular topic is also considered as a workshop. Minimum duration of 4 hours up to a mximum duration of 5 days.

(c) A group discussion is a gathering of a minimum of 3 and a maximum of 25 people. Focusing on a relevant topic, which may include policies, legislation, book reviews, journal articles (the titles of which will be noted on the certificate of attendance), case studies and sharing of best practice models. Group discussions may occur face to face or via an internet discussion group.

(d) Group supervision will only be considered for CPD points if it is planned, focused and structured with educational objectives on specific topics (which will be noted on the certificate of attendance) and/or aimed at increased knowledge with clear evidence of participation. Group supervision can include in-service training if it has an educational and developmental focus in a particular field of practice. Minimum duration of 1 hourup to a mximum duration of 4 hours.

(e) An information session is a gathering of 3 or more people where information on a particular topic is presented. The communication tends to be one-way but may allow for questions. Minimum duration of 1 hour up to a mximum duration of 3 hours.

12.2.4 Criteria for assessment of group activities
The CPD Assessment panel, after an application was assessed, concludes on an outcome:

(a) suspended: when the application is incomplete and more information is required;

(b) not approved: when the application does not meet the requirements of a CPD group activity as defined in this policy; or

(c) approved: when the application met the requirements of a CPD group activity, as defined in this policy.

12.2.5 When an activity is approved, CPD points are awarded according to the range of points reflected in Tables 1 to 7 for each of the following criteria:

(a) the depth of learning;

(b) presenter credibility;

(c) learner assessment;

(d) participation method;

(e) appropriateness of content to professional development

(f) ethics; and

(g) skills development.

TABLE 1: Depth of learning

12.4 Online activities

12.4.1 An online CPD activity is an activity aimed at building knowledge, skills and other required professional competencies. The activity content can contain video recordings, video clips or any other visual material relevant to the activity topic. Different facilitators can be utilised for the online activity.

12.4.2   The online activity should make provision for the following:

(a) Provision for participants to return to any portion of the online activity at any given time.

(b) Progress throughout the activity should have detailed restrictions until all the required tasks are completed e.g. participants should complete one module with specific allocated tasks before accessing the next module

(c) Online activities consisting out of one module should have detailed restrictions until all the required tasks are completed

(d) After each module the facilitator has to complete a test or specific tasks, which should be submitted to the the facilitator to determine whether the participant understands the contents of the module/ skills to be developed. Once it is clear that the contents are understood/ required skills developed, the the facilitator will unlock access to the next module.

(e) Once the full online activity is completed and the the facilitator is satisfied that the participant gained the necessary knowledge/skills a certificate will be issued by the the facilitator.

13.   ACTIVITIES APPROVED BY OTHER PROFESSIONAL COUNCILS AND OTHER ACTIVITIES

13.1   Activities approved for CPD purposes by other professional statutory bodies and all other non-CPD accredited activities may also be included in the PoE as individual activities. Proof of attendance, programme/agenda, framework of the content must be included in the Portfolios of Evidence together with a written motivation by the practitioner of how attendance contributed to his/her CPD. The PoE assessment panel will consider such activities in terms of their appropriateness for the practitioner registered with the South African Council for Social Service Professions and allocate CPD points if deemed appropriate.

13.2   Group and online activities facilitated by professionals registered with other professional bodies may also apply for CPD points from the South African Council for Social Service Professions. The relevancy of the programme content will be assessed and CPD points will be allocated as per the set South African Council for Social Service Professions' CPD criteria.

14.   CPD REQUIREMENTS

14.1   Persons registered with SACSSP

All persons registered, including veterans, must comply with the policy. A portfolio of evidence must be submitted only at the request of the Professional Board for Social Work. PoEs will be selected on a random basis from the register of social workers and social auxiliary workers.

14.2   Non-practising registered persons

When non-practising registered persons re-enter practice, they will be obliged to commence with the accumulation of CPD points in the year of re-entry.

14.3   First time registrants

Anyone who registers for the first time in a particular year will be obliged to commence with his/her CPD programme in the year of registration.

14.4   Registered persons practising outside the Republic of South Africa (RSA)

Persons registered with the South African Council for Social Service Professions who are practising abroad are required to comply with CPD requirements of this policy.

14.5   Restorations

Any person whose name has been removed from the Register and who applies for restoration will be obliged to commence with accumulation of CPD points in the year of restoration.

14.6   Non-compliant practitioners

14.6.1   The non-compliant practitioner will be given the opportunity to comply with the policy within a period of six (6) months, and re-submit a Portfolios of Evidence. A further failure to comply will result in referral to the Professional Conduct division. The following actions will be taken:

(a) A letter will be sent to the practitioner requesting a reason for the non-compliance and a response will be expected within two weeks.

(b) Should the explanation be acceptable, the practitioner will be given a further six months to comply with the CPD requirements. Evidence of such compliance must be received by the Professional Conduct division within two weeks of the end of the six months period.

(c) Should the practitioner not comply with the requirements of this policy his/her name will be forwarded without delay to the Committee for Preliminary Inquiry (CPI) to deal with the matter according to the Rules relating to the acts or omissions of a social worker, social auxiliary worker, student social worker which shall constitute unprofessional or improper conduct and the Regulations regarding the conducting of inquiries into alleged unprofessional conduct.
