SACSSP: SOCIAL SERVICE PRACTITIONERS UNITED IN EXCELLENCE

To deliver on our strategy for 2021 it is vital to partner with a bank that shares our values, promotes good governance and provides end-to-end financial and business solutions that enable us to deliver on several key objectives:

- Developing an effective, efficient and accountable administration (structure, systems, policies, governance, procedures, competency, capacity, staff morale and infrastructure).
- Ensuring an effective financial-management system compliant with applicable and appropriate financial frameworks is in place and fully functional.
- Ensuring an efficient registration system and process for social service practitioners.
- Nurturing and consolidating partnerships and stakeholder relations nationally, regionally and internationally.
- Communicating in a transparent, consistent and responsive manner.
- Contributing to policy and legislative developments and implementation.
- Ensuring the council operates in an integrated, unified and supportive manner with all its components (council, professional boards and administration).
- Promoting innovative and indigenous methods of multidisciplinary practice.

Working with financial experts who understand our unique challenges and have extensive experience in public sector banking will go a long way in helping us deliver on our goals. We are confident that Nedbank will boost our ability to deliver excellent service to the social-practitioner community.

We welcome Nedbank as our new banking partner and look forward to an effective working relationship.
