ABOUT THE SOUTH AFRICAN COUNCIL FOR SOCIAL SERVICE PROFESSIONS

The South African Council for Social Service Professions (SACSSP) is a statutory body established in terms of section 2 of the Social Service Professions Act 110 of 1978. The SACSSP has two professional boards under its auspices: i.e. the Professional Board for Social Work and the Professional Board for Child and Youth Care Work. The SACSSP, in conjunction with its two professional boards, guides and regulates the professions of social work and child youth care work in aspects pertaining to registration, education and training, professional conduct and ethical behaviour, ensuring continuing professional development and fostering compliance with professional standards. It is protecting the integrity of the social service professions as well as the interest of the public at large. In order to safeguard the public and indirectly the professions, registration in terms of the Act with the SACSSP is a prerequisite for practising social work and child and youth care work. This includes social workers, social auxiliary workers, student social workers, student social auxiliary workers, child and youth care workers, auxiliary child and youth care workers, student child and youth care workers, and student auxiliary child and youth care workers.

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 In alignment with international practice, the Professional Board of Social Work (PBSW), under the auspices of the South African Council of Social Service Professions (SACSSP) established a system of continuing professional development (CPD) to enhance and ensure the quality of social work services. Through CPD, the knowledge, attitude and skills base of social work practice is enhanced.
- 1.2 In principle, the Professional Board for Social Work and the South African Council for Social Service Professions are committed to a continuing professional development (CPD) system that is transparent, flexible, cost-effective, user-friendly and accessible to all practitioners. Continuing professional development enables and encourages social workers and social auxiliary workers to share and train other social workers and social auxiliary workers on new knowledge and expertise. This policy should be read in conjunction with the relevant provisions of the Social Service Professions Act 110 of 1978 and Regulations thereto.

2. SUPERSEDING OF EXISTING POLICY

This policy supersedes the Continuing Professional Development Policy dated 1 April 2010 and authorises its withdrawal.

3. AIM OF THE POLICY

The aim of the policy is to ensure continuing professional development of a high quality in social work and social auxiliary work.

4. SCOPE OF THE POLICY

The scope of the policy addresses the following:

- (a) continuing professional development (CPD) legislative framework;
- (b) roles and responsibilities in respect of CPD;
- (c) criteria for CPD activities;
- (d) continuing professional development (CPD) application requirements;
- (e) continuing professional development (CPD) application process; and
- (f) portfolios of evidence (PoE).

5. POLICY OBJECTIVES

This policy strives to:

- 5.1 Ensure that social workers and social auxiliary workers retain and continuously develop their skills, scientific and professional attitude as well as knowledge by enabling them to:
- (a) develop scientific knowledge, skills and competencies;
 - (b) provide quality services that are relevant and appropriate, especially in the South African context;
 - (c) improve services rendered to individuals, families, groups, communities and organisations;

- (d) facilitate reflective practice;
- (e) keep abreast of current trends, research and developments in the profession;
- (f) assert their professional view in multi-sectorial and multi-disciplinary contexts;
- (g) function effectively as a member of the multi-disciplinary team;
- (h) be motivated to continue with practising the profession;
- (i) be supported by and network with other professionals;
- (j) reduce occupational stress and other related ailments;
- (k) create opportunities to develop own business in providing CPD activities; and
- (l) always conducting themselves ethically.

5.2 Ensure that the quality of CPD activities is of a high and appropriate standard.

6. APPLICABILITY

The policy is applicable to social workers, social auxiliary workers and CPD training providers.

7. POLICY STATEMENT

The Professional Board for Social Work maintains professional standards that promote excellence in practice through a compulsory system continuing professional development (CPD) with which all social workers and social auxiliary workers registered with the South African Council for Social Service Professions should comply.

8. POLICY PRINCIPLES

The following principles apply in the implementation of this policy:

- (a) Accountability: The policy complies with the requirements of all applicable legislation and policies.
- (b) Administrative justice: Quality assurance processes are executed in an administratively just manner, which requires openness, timeous notice, reporting and opportunity to respond or appeal.
- (c) Appropriateness: The policy is responsive to social, economic, cultural and political conditions within the framework of the social work profession.
- (d) Collaboration: There is recognition that quality assurance takes place in collaboration with other role players.
- (e) Democracy and participation: The value of democracy and participation recognises both rights and responsibilities of training providers, social workers and social auxiliary workers.
- (f) Developmental approach: Continuing professional development (CPD) processes embrace the developmental approach for training providers, social workers and social auxiliary workers.

- (g) Efficiency and effectiveness: Training provision should be achieved with efficiency and cost-effectiveness.
- (h) Equality: Training providers, social workers and social auxiliary workers are treated equally and without prejudice.
- (i) Fairness: Continuing professional development (CPD) processes are implemented in line with this policy.
- (j) Partnership: This policy values partnership in the professional development of social service professionals.
- (k) Transparency: Access to information, and openness regarding administrative and management procedures.

9. AUDITABLE OUTCOMES

The CPD process within the South African Council for Social Service Professions shall be measured against the following indicators:

- (a) well managed applications and appeals;
- (b) assessed applications;
- (c) timeous feedback to applicants;
- (d) management of received and assessed Portfolios of Evidence;
- (e) an accurate training provider database; and
- (f) satisfied customers.

10. LIST OF APPLICABLE LEGISLATION AND POLICIES

The CPD policy framework is developed from the following legislation:

- (a) Social Service Professions Act 110 of 1978;
- (b) National Qualifications Framework Act 67 of 2008;
- (c) Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000;
- (d) Promotion of Administrative Justice Act 3 of 2000;
- (e) Skills Development Act 97 of 1998;
- (f) Skills Levies Act 9 of 1999; and
- (g) Policy for Social Service Practitioners (2017)

11. CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT REQUIREMENTS

- 11.1 All registered social workers are required to obtain a minimum of twenty (20) CPD points annually, or forty (40) points over a period of a two (2) year cycle.
- 11.2 All registered social auxiliary workers are required to obtain a minimum of ten (10) CPD points annually or twenty (20) points over a period of a two (2) year cycle.
- 11.3 At least one CPD activity in a two-year cycle must address exclusively on the professional Code of conduct and ethics for social workers and social auxiliary workers.
- 11.4 A maximum of ten (10) accumulated CPD points may be carried over to the next year for a maximum period of one year.

- 11.5 Veteran social workers older than 65 years are required to obtain a minimum of fifteen (15) CPD points annually, or thirty (30) points over a period of a two (2) year cycle.
- 11.6 CPD points should be accumulated from a combination of activities and cannot be obtained from one single CPD category. This is to encourage professionals to participate in a variety of activities, to ensure different levels of learning, participation and exposure.
- 11.7 Each CPD activity is approved after assessment and CPD points are allocated against the set criteria. CPD points are awarded to trainees on completion of the CPD activity.

12. CATEGORIES OF CPD ACTIVITIES AND POINT ALLOCATIONS

12.1 Overview of categories

- 12.1.1 There are three categories of CPD activities - group, individual and online activities:
- (a) CPD group activities are approved after being assessed by the CPD assessment panel and points awarded according to the set criteria of this policy.
 - (b) CPD points for individual activities are awarded according to the set criteria of this policy after the PoE was requested, submitted and assessed by the CPD assessment panel.
 - (c) Online CPD group activities are approved after being assessed by the CPD assessment panel and points awarded according to the set criteria of this policy.
- 12.1.2 Social workers and social auxiliary workers are required to keep a Portfolio of Evidence (PoE) for all approved group and individual activities attended.

12.2 Group activities

- 12.2.1 A group activity is any organised event, either face to face or via any electronic means, where at least three (3) practitioners are grouped or assembled for the purposes of sharing information, building knowledge, developing skills and/or influencing attitudes on a subject of professional interest.
- 12.2.2 Group activities include conferences, workshops, seminars, short learning programmes, small group discussions and information sessions. These activities require approval from the CPD assessment panel prior to the commencement of the CPD activity.
- 12.2.3 Types of group activities:
- (a) A conference/congress/symposium/seminar is a gathering of people who meet in a local, regional, provincial, national or international context to discuss an issue of concern reflected in a specific theme and sub themes. Minimum duration of two (2) hours up to a maximum of five (5) days.
 - (b) A workshop refers to a gathering at which a group of people engage in intensive study, work, participation, discussions and/or activities on a particular subject with the purpose of analysing existing knowledge, expanding the knowledge base through new ideas, sharpening of skills and building of competencies. The intention is to address policy, practice and educational challenges. Non-credit bearing short courses of no more than five (5) days on a particular topic are also considered as a workshop. Minimum duration of four (4) hours up to a maximum of 5 days.

- (c) A small group discussion is a gathering of a minimum of three (3) and a maximum of 25 people focusing on a relevant topic, which may include policies, legislation, book reviews, journal articles (the titles of which will be noted on the certificate of attendance), case studies and sharing of best practice models. Group discussions may occur face-to-face or via an internet/online discussion group.
- (d) Group supervision will only be considered for CPD points if it is planned, focused and structured with educational objectives on specific topics (which will be noted on the certificate of attendance) and/or aimed at increased knowledge with clear evidence of participation. Group supervision can include in-service training if it has an educational and developmental focus in a particular field of practice submitted in a programme format. Minimum duration of one (1) hour up to a maximum of four (4) hours.
- (e) An information session is a gathering of three (3) or more people where information on a particular topic is presented. The communication tends to be one-way but may allow for questions. This will have a duration of minimum of one (1) hour up to a maximum of three (3) hours.

12.2.4 Criteria for assessment of group activities

After an application has been assessed, the CPD Assessment panel will pronounce an outcome in one of the following ways:

- (a) suspended: when the application is incomplete, and more information is required;
- (b) not approved: when the application does not meet the requirements of a CPD group activity as defined in this policy; or
- (c) approved: when the application met the requirements of a CPD group activity, as defined in this policy.

12.2.5 When an activity is approved, CPD points are awarded according to the range of points reflected in Tables 1 to 7 for each of the following criteria:

- (a) depth of learning;
- (b) presenter credibility;
- (c) learner assessment method;
- (d) participation method;
- (e) appropriateness of content to professional development;
- (f) ethics; and
- (g) skills development.

TABLE 1: Depth of learning

Levels	Rating
Basic information sharing (Basic information = on same level as under-graduate/basic qualification – knowledge is basically refreshed)	1
Basic information sharing with reflection and questions	2
Intermediate information sharing (Intermediate information = more advanced level with specific reference to practical considerations, improved performance and quality)	3
Intermediate information sharing through discussion	4
Advanced information sharing (Advanced information = specialised, researched and theory-based information presented by experts in the specific field)	4
Advanced information sharing through practical engagements	5
Advanced information sharing through applications and interpretation	6

TABLE 6: Ethics (ethical considerations related to the topic-specific in programme)

Levels	Rating
None or unclear (No time specifically allocated in the programme to ethical considerations)	0
Limited inputs (less than 10% of time)	1
Ethical consideration applied in practice, included as separate topic on the programme (20 – 30% of time)	2
All programme contents focus on ethics	3

TABLE 7: Skills development (practical application)

Levels	Rating
None or unclear	0
Limited skills development (<20% of time)	1
Intermediate skills development activities (20 – 30%) (Level of practical skills application and expected outcome to be clearly indicated)	2
Active skills development activities (50/50) (Level of practical skills application and expected outcome to be clearly indicated)	3

12.2.6 Point calculations

12.2.6.1 Daily ratings: The total rating per day will be calculated from the allocated ratings as per the tables above. The maximum number of points per learning activity per day is 8. Calculated as follows: 32 divided by 4 = 8. 6+ hours is considered a full day

12.2.6.2 Calculation of multiple day activities: The number of points accumulated per day x the number of days (e.g. 8 points x 5 days = 40 points)

12.2.6.3 Activities less than 6 hours: Total as calculated under point 1 ÷ 6 x the total number of hours of the activity e.g. 8 points ÷ 6 x 4 hours = 5.3 (that will be rounded of to 5)

12.2.6.4 Point allocation for presenters: Presenters will accumulate 50% CPD points for presenting/facilitating or developing learning materials/manuals as stipulated under individual activity.

12.3 Individual activities

Individual activities refer to those activities completed on an individual basis, inclusive of online activities. The individual must motivate the relevance of the activity for continuing professional development in a written format. The CPD assessment panel reserves the right not to allocate points.

12.3.1 Types of individual activities:

- (a) Self-study of scientific articles and books requires reflection on the contents either through a questionnaire in the journal (if available) or the South African Council for Social Service Professions' guideline (FORM E.2.4).
- (b) Formal learning programme includes a whole qualification on any relevant topic related to the working environment with proof of registration, progress and successful completion of a full qualification. For studies towards a Master's degree qualification, points will be allocated for a maximum of three (3) years and five (5) years towards a doctoral programme. For a postgraduate diploma, CPD points will be allocated for a maximum of two (2) years. Additional points will be allocated on the successful completion of a qualification.
- (c) External examination refers to practitioners assessing postgraduate studies.
- (d) Learning material/manual for the development of learning material/manuals for training purposes and review of existing learning material/manuals, providing written information on the process followed, research done and the final product.
- (e) Short learning programmes include all short programmes, whether credits are awarded or not, and are inclusive of skills, credit-bearing short courses and non-credit-bearing short courses.
- (f) Paper presentations: includes a written paper presented in a plenary or breakaway session, being a guest lecturer at a higher education institution, doing an introductory presentation in a panel session, doing a poster presentation, a web-based presentation or video production.
- (g) Preparation, presentation and facilitation of individual and group activities
- (h) Research refers to an investigation by one or more persons into a field or area of practice to obtain facts that will inform practice and improve service delivery, which culminates in best practice models and/or publications.

- (i) Authorship entails publications in books, scientific or practice journals, authored as a sole author, a co-author, editor or contributor (including training manuals and protocols).
- (j) Peer reviews involve commenting on the professional activities and work of colleagues upon formal request, including monographs, manuscripts and book reviews.
- (k) Position paper/legislative and policy analysis entails responding in writing to policies and legislative issues reflecting a critical analysis in order to influence or shape policies and legislation.
- (l) Membership includes evidence of being a registered and active member of any international, national, regional or local organisation which protects and promotes the professional interests of the profession and professionals.
- (m) Personal wellness refers to a structured programme that is contributing to the individual's ability to cope more effectively with the demands of the profession.

12.3.2 The points are allocated as per the following Tables:

12.4 Online activities

12.4.1 An online CPD activity is an activity aimed at building knowledge, skills and other required professional competencies. The activity content can contain video recordings, video clips or any other visual material relevant to the activity topic. Different facilitators can be utilised for a particular online activity.

12.4.2 The online activity should make provision for the following:

- (a) Provision for participants to return to any portion of the online activity at any given time.
- (b) Progress throughout the activity should have detailed restrictions until all the required tasks are completed e.g. participants should complete one module with specific allocated tasks before accessing the next module.
- (c) Online activities consisting of one module should have detailed restrictions until all the required tasks are completed.
- (d) After each module the participant must complete a test or specific tasks, which should be submitted to the facilitator to determine whether the participant understands the contents of the module/ skills to be developed. Once it is clear that the contents are understood or required skills developed, the facilitator will unlock access to the next module.
- (e) Once the full online activity is completed and the facilitator is satisfied that the participant gained the necessary knowledge/skills, a certificate will be issued by the facilitator.

13. ACTIVITIES APPROVED BY OTHER PROFESSIONAL COUNCILS AND OTHER ACTIVITIES

- 13.1 Activities approved for CPD purposes by other professional statutory bodies and all other non-CPD accredited activities may also be included in the Portfolios of Evidence as individual activities. Proof of attendance, programme/agenda and framework of the content must be included in the Portfolios of Evidence together with a written motivation by the practitioner of how attendance contributed to his/her continuing professional development. The Portfolios of Evidence assessment panel will consider such activities in terms of their appropriateness for the practitioner registered with the South African Council for Social Service Professions and allocate CPD points if deemed appropriate.
- 13.2 Group and online activities facilitated by professionals registered with other professional bodies may also apply for CPD points from the South African Council for Social Service Professions. The relevancy of the programme content will be assessed and CPD points will be allocated as per the set South African Council for Social Service Professions' CPD criteria.

14. ROLE-PLAYERS' RESPONSIBILITIES

14.1 South African Council for Social Service Professions

The SACSSP accepts responsibility for:

- (a) providing the necessary resources for the implementation of the CPD policy;
- (b) establishing basic infrastructure to ensure an efficient CPD; and
- (c) all administrative processes related to the CPD system and assessment process.

14.2 Professional Board for Social Work

The Professional Board for Social Work accepts responsibility for:

- (a) participating in and attending all CPD assessment panel meetings;
- (b) engaging the sector on all matters relating to the CPD process;
- (c) implementing and reviewing the CPD policy through the Professional Board's ETD committee;
- (d) determining the criteria for the approval of CPD points;
- (e) appointing and supporting the CPD Assessment Panel;
- (f) promotion of continuing professional development;
- (g) assessment of CPD activities;
- (h) reviewing and moderating of individual PoEs
- (i) monitoring and evaluating of the CPD system;
- (j) quality assurance of CPD activities;
- (k) establishing and maintaining an internal database of approved CPD activities and training providers;
- (l) promoting approved CPD activities and training providers on the SACSSP's website;

- (m) appointing the Portfolio of Evidence review and moderation panels; and
- (n) reviewing and publishing the CPD application fees annually on the SACSSP's website.

14.3 Assessment panel for CPD activities

14.3.1 Group activities

- (a) A CPD Assessment Panel shall be constituted of a maximum of five (5) and a minimum of three (3) representatives of the profession, at least one of whom shall be a member of the Professional Board for Social Work; The composition of the panel shall reflect diversity.
- (b) The CPD Assessment Panel will meet regularly on six-weekly basis to assess applications.
- (c) A pool of panel members will be recruited by a transparent and open invitation process, selected by the ETD committee and approved by the Professional Board for Social Work. Panel members must be trained in the application of the CPD policy.
- (d) Members of the CPD Assessment Panel will assess each application and allocate points as per the criteria of the CPD assessment tool.

14.3.2 Individual activities

- (a) A pool of subject matter experts will be recruited by a transparent and open invitation process, selected by the Education, Training and Development Committee and approved by the Professional Board for Social Work. Subject matter experts must be trained in the application of the CPD policy.
- (b) Individual Portfolios of Evidence (PoE's) will be assessed and moderated by the approved subject matter experts as per the criteria of the CPD assessment tool.
