
DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL DEVELOPMENTNo. R. 101*18 FEBRUARY 2011

Social Service Professions Act 110, 1978

REGULATIONS REGARDING THE REGISTRATION OF SOCIAL WORKERS

The Minister of Social Development has, in terms of section 28 of the Social Service Professions Act, 1978 (Act 110 1978), as amended, on the recommendation of the South African Council for Social Service Professions made the regulations set out in the Schedule hereto.

SCHEDULEDEFINITIONS

1. In these regulations “the Act” means the Social Service Professions Act, 1978 (Act 110 of 1978), as amended and any expression to which a meaning has been assigned in the Act shall have such meaning and, unless the context otherwise indicates –

“annual fee” means the annual fee referred to in regulation 5

“certified copy” means a copy or photo copy of a document certified by a commissioner of oaths to be a true copy, or photo copy, as the case may be, of the original.

“certificate of registration” means a certificate of registration referred to in section 17(2)(a) of the Act.

“chairperson of the board” means the chairperson appointed by the Minister in terms of regulation 4 of the regulations regarding the functioning of professional boards.

“National Qualifications Framework (NQF)” means a comprehensive system approved by the Minister of Education for the classification, registration, publication and articulation of quality-assured national qualifications.

“original” means a true/unique document without being reproduced in any manner.

“prescribed” means with regard to fees as prescribed by regulation 28 in terms of the Social Service Professions Act, 1978, as amended.

“president” means the president of the South African Council for Social Service Professions.

“provider” means for the purposes of these regulations, a recognized and accredited body that delivers learning programmes focused on the achievement of specified NQF registered qualifications and standards on the South African Qualifications Authority’s (SAQA) database and manages the assessment of learning achievements or prior to the existence of SAQA a body recognized by the Council for this purpose.

“qualification” means a qualification registered by the South African Qualifications Authority, or prior to its existence recognized by the SACSSP.

“register” means a register referred to in section 19(1) of the Act.

“recognition of prior learning (RPL)” means an act by a provider comprising the comparison with the previous learning and experience of a learner howsoever obtained against the learning outcomes acquired for a specified qualification and the acceptance for purposes of qualification of that which meets the requirements.

“social work” means the profession of social work that promotes social changes, problem solving in human relationships and the empowerment and liberation of people to enhance well-being. Utilising theories of human behaviour and social systems, social work intervenes at the points where people interact with their environments. Principles of human rights and social justice are fundamental to social work. [International Federation of Social Workers and International Association of Schools of Social Work, 2000]

QUALIFICATIONS

2.(1) The following qualifications are prescribed for the purpose of section 17 (1) of the Act:

- (a) a qualification obtained at a provider in the RSA where the applicant was enrolled for the qualification before 1 January 2007 that included-
 - (i) at least four year-courses in the subject Social Work, one year of which may be completed on post-graduate level;

- (bA) a qualification obtained at a provider in the RSA or a former TBVC (Transkei, Bophuthatswana, Venda, Ciskei) state after 1 January 1987 where the training in Social Work extended over three years that included at least three year courses in Social Work plus either at least three year-courses in Sociology and at least two year-courses in psychology or at least three year-courses in Psychology and at least two year-courses in Sociology: Provided that a qualification referred to in this paragraph shall be recognized only if the relevant provider issues a certificate stating that the holder of such qualification is qualified as a social worker and such person submits proof, acceptable to the Council, that he or she has, before the commencement of the Social Work

Amendment Act, 1995 (Act No 52 of 1995), practiced as a social worker in any of the former TBVC states; or

- (c) a qualification obtained before 7 August 1970 at a provider in the RSA or in respect of which the holder of the qualification enrolled or was enrolled for such a qualification at such provider not later than the date referred to and subsequently satisfied all the requirements for the qualification which include –
 - (i) at least three year-courses in Social Work; and
 - (ii) at least three year-courses in either Sociology or Psychology or Criminology; and
 - (iii) at least one year-course in any of the subjects mentioned in subparagraph (ii) that was not included in such course; or
- (d) a qualification obtained at a provider in the RSA before 7 August 1970 in respect of which such provider issued a certificate to the effect that-
 - (i) the holder of such qualification is qualified as a social worker; or
 - (ii) the education and training in Social Work that such holder had received at the provider concerned, was regarded as adequate education and training for practicing the profession of Social Work; or
- (e) an Honours, or Master's or Doctorate degree in Social Work from a provider in the RSA which was obtained by a person after he/she had satisfied all the requirements for a qualification from the provider in the RSA other than the qualification referred to in paragraph (a) (b) (c) or (d), or he/she had been admitted to the status of such qualification by such provider –
 - (i) before 31 December 1973; or
 - (ii) after 31 December 1973, but for which he or she was enrolled as a student at such provider on that date; or
- (f) a qualification obtained at a training institution in a country or state outside the RSA –
 - (i) that grants the holder the right to practice as a social worker in the country or state in which the training institution concerned is situated;
 - (ii) in respect of which the Council, after such investigation and inquiry as it may deem fit, is satisfied that it is equal to or higher than the qualification referred to in paragraphs (a), or (b), or (g) or (h); or
- (g) a professional Bachelor of Social Work degree equivalent to an NQF Level 7 or 8 qualification registered with the South African Qualifications Authority, and approved by the Professional Board for Social Work and the SACSSP: Provided that no more than 50% of this qualification may be obtained through RPL; or

- (h) a qualification obtained at a provider in respect of which the holder of the qualification enrolled or was enrolled for such qualification after 21 September 2001 but before 1 January 2007 in the RSA where at least 50% of the total minimum content of the programmes for the qualification include Social Work modules taken over a study period of four years or a study period deemed to be four years, at the discretion of the Council; or
- (i) A qualification obtained at a provider within the human or economic sciences, plus at least four year courses in Social Work to the equivalent of the CORE exit levels outcomes of the professional Bachelor of Social Work degree as registered on the SAQA database.
- (3) For the purposes of these regulations a qualification shall be deemed to have been obtained on the date on which the holder thereof satisfied all the requirements for such qualification.
- (4) No qualification in Social Work referred to in this regulation, obtained at a provider in the RSA, confers upon the holder thereof the right to register as a social worker unless the holder of such qualification, during his or her second year of study in the subject Social Work, starting on 1 January 1992, and during every later year of study in that subject, was registered as a student social worker in terms of regulation 2 of the regulations published by Government Gazette No 2427 of 30 October 1987, as amended.
