ABOUT THE SOUTH AFRICAN COUNCIL FOR SERVICE PROFESSIONS

The South African Council for Social Service Professions (SACSSP) is a statutory body established in terms of section 2 of the Social Service Professions Act 110 of 1978. The SACSSP has two professional boards under its auspices: i.e. the Professional Board for Social Work and the Professional Board for Child and Youth Care Work. The SACSSP, in conjunction with its two professional boards, guides and regulates the professions of social work and child youth care work in aspects pertaining to registration, education and training, professional conduct and ethical behaviour, ensuring continuing professional development, and fostering compliance with professional standards. It is protecting the integrity of the social service professions as well as the interest of the public at large. In order to safeguard the public and indirectly the professions, registration in terms of the Act with the SACSSP is a prerequisite for practising social work and child and youth care work. This includes social workers, social auxiliary workers, student social workers, student social auxiliary workers, child and youth care workers, auxiliary child and youth care workers, student child and youth care workers, and student auxiliary child and youth care workers.

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 In alignment with international practice, the Professional Board of Social Work (PBSW), under the auspices of the South African Council of Social Service Professions (SACSSP) established a system of continuing professional development (CPD) to enhance and ensure the quality of social work services. Through CPD, the knowledge, attitude and skills base of social work practice is enhanced.
- 1.2 In principle, the Professional Board for Social Work and the South African Council for Social Service Professions is committed to a CPD system that is transparent, flexible, cost-effective, user-friendly and accessible to all practitioners. Continuing professional development enables and encourages social workers and social auxiliary workers to share and train other social workers and social auxiliary workers on new knowledge and expertise. This policy should be read in conjunction with the Social Service Professions Act 110 of 1978.
- 1.3 The Professional Board for Social Work reviewed the Policy on continuing professional development policy (CPD) for social workers and social auxiliary workers that was approved in 2019 based on practical feedback received from the sector. This culminated into this amended version of the said policy.

2. SUPERSEDING OF EXISTING POLICY

This policy supersedes the Continuing Professional Development Policy dated 1 April 2010 and authorises its withdrawal; and amends the Policy on continuing professional development policy (CPD) for social workers and social auxiliary workers (2019).

3. AIM OF THE POLICY

The aim of the policy is to ensure continuing professional development of a high quality.

4. SCOPE OF THE POLICY

The scope of the policy addresses the following:

- (a) CPD legislative framework;
- (b) roles and responsibilities in respect of CPD;
- (c) criteria for CPD activities;
- (d) CPD application requirements;
- (e) CPD application process; and
- (f) portfolios of evidence (PoE).

5. POLICY OBJECTIVES

This Policy strives to:

- 5.1 Ensure that social workers and social auxiliary workers retain and continuously develop their skills and scientific, professional attitude and knowledge by enabling them to:
- (a) provide quality services that are relevant and appropriate, especially in the South African context;
  - (b) improve services rendered to individuals, families, groups, communities and organisations;
  - (c) facilitate reflective practice;
  - (d) keep abreast of current trends, research and developments in the profession;
  - (e) assert their professional view in multi-sectorial and multi-disciplinary contexts;
  - (f) function effectively as a member of the multi-disciplinary team;
  - (g) be motivated to continue with practising the profession;
  - (h) be supported by and network with other professionals;
  - (i) reduce occupational stress and other related ailments;

- (j) create opportunities to develop own business in providing CPD activities; and
- (k) conduct themselves ethically at all times.

5.2 Ensure that the quality of CPD activities is of a high and appropriate standard (see paragraph 15).

6. APPLICABILITY

6.1 All registered social workers and social auxiliary workers, including veteran social workers and social auxiliary workers, must comply with this policy.

6.2 A portfolio of evidence (PoE) must be submitted only at the request of the Professional Board for Social Work. PoEs will be selected on a random basis from the register of social workers and social auxiliary workers. Also see paragraph 14.4.

6.3 First time registrants

6.3.1 A social worker and/or social auxiliary worker who registers for the first time with the SACSSP must commence with the accumulation of CPD points in terms of this policy in the same year he or she registered.

6.3.2 Non-practising registered social workers and social auxiliary workers

A social worker and/or social auxiliary worker who is not practicing social work or social auxiliary work, but is registered with the SACSSP, must commence with the accumulation of CPD points in the year that he or she starts to practice again.

6.3.3 Registered social workers and social auxiliary workers practising outside the Republic of South Africa (RSA)

A social worker and/or social auxiliary worker registered with the SACSSP who are practising abroad are required to comply with the requirements of this policy.

6.3.4 Restoration to the Register

A social worker and/or social auxiliary worker whose name has been removed from the Register kept in terms of section 19 and who applies for restoration in terms of section 20 of the Act must commence with the accumulation of CPD points in the year that he or she re-entered the profession and his or her name was restored in the said Register.

7. POLICY STATEMENT

The Professional Board for Social Work maintains professional standards that promote excellence in practice through a compulsory system in which all social workers and social auxiliary workers registered with the South African Council for Social Service Professions (SACSSP) should comply.

8. POLICY PRINCIPLES

The following principles apply in the implementation of this policy:

- (a) Accountability: The policy complies with the requirements of all applicable legislation and policies.
- (b) Administrative justice: Quality assurance processes are executed in an administrative just manner; which require openness, timeous notice, reporting and opportunity to respond or appeal.
- (c) Appropriateness: The policy is responsive to social, economic, cultural and political conditions within the framework of the social work profession;.
- (d) Collaboration: There is recognition that quality assurance takes place in collaboration with other role players.
- (e) Democracy and participation: The value of democracy and participation recognises both rights and responsibilities of training providers, social workers and social auxiliary workers.

- (f) Developmental approach: Continuing professional development processes embrace the developmental approach for training providers, social workers and social auxiliary workers.
- (g) Efficiency and effectiveness: Training provision should be achieved with efficiency and cost- effectiveness.
- (h) Equality: Training providers, social workers and social auxiliary workers are treated equally and without preference.
- (i) Fairness: Continuing professional development processes are implemented in line with this policy.
- (j) Partnership: This policy values partnership in the professional development of social service professionals.
- (k) Transparency: Access to information, and openness regarding administrative and management procedures.

9. LIST OF APPLICABLE LEGISLATION AND POLICIES

The CPD policy is developed from the following legislation:

- (a) Social Service Professions Act 110 of 1978;
- (b) National Qualifications Framework Act 67 of 2008;
- (c) Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000;
- (d) Promotion of Administrative Justice Act 3 of 2000;
- (e) Skills Development Act 97 of 1998;
- (f) Skills Levies Act 9 of 1999; and
- (g) Policy for Social Service Practitioners (2017)

10. CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT REQUIREMENTS

- 10.1 All registered social workers (excluding students) are required to obtain a minimum of twenty (20) CPD points annually, or forty (40) points over two (2) year cycle.
- 10.2 All registered social auxiliary workers (excluding students) are required to obtain a minimum of ten(10) CPD points annually or twenty (20) points over a two (2) year cycle.
- 10.3 A maximum of ten (10) accumulated points may be forwarded to the next year for a maximum period of one (1) year.
- 10.4 Practicing veteran social workers older than 65 are required to obtain a minimum of ten (10) CPD points annually, or thirty (30) points over a period of two (2) year cycle.
- 10.5 CPD points should be accumulated from a combination of activities and cannot be obtained from one single CPD category. This is to encourage professionals to participate in a variety of activities, to ensure different levels of learning, participation and exposure.

11. RESPONSIBILITIES OF ROLE-PLAYERS RESPONSIBILITIES

11.1 South African Council for Social Service Professions

The SACSSP accepts responsibility for:

- (a) providing the necessary resources for the implementation of the CPD policy;
- (b) establishing basic infrastructure to ensure an efficient continuing professional development system; and
- (c) all administrative processes related to the continuing professional development system and assessment process.

11.2 Professional Board for Social Work

The Professional Board for Social Work accepts responsibility for:

- (a) participating in and attending all CPD assessment panel meetings;

- (b) engaging the sector on all matters relating to the CPD process;
- (c) implementing and reviewing the CPD policy through the Professional Board's ETD Committee;
- (d) determining the criteria for the approval of CPD points;
- (e) appointing and supporting the CPD Assessment Panel;
- (f) promotion of continuing professional development (CPD);
- (g) assessment of CPD activities;
- (h) monitoring and evaluating of the continuing professional development system;
- (i) quality assurance of CPD activities;
- (j) establishing and maintaining an internal database of approved CPD activities and training providers;
- (k) promoting approved CPD activities and training providers on the SACSSP's website;
- (l) appointing the Portfolio of Evidence review and moderation panels; and
- (m) reviewing and publishing the CPD application fees annually on the SACSSP's website.

11.3 Assessment panel for CPD activities

11.3.1 Group activities

- (a) A CPD Assessment Panel is constituted of a maximum of five (5) and a minimum of three (3) representatives of the profession, at least one of whom shall be a member of the Professional Board for Social Work. The composition of the panel shall reflect diversity.
- (b) The CPD Assessment Panel will meet regularly on six-weekly basis to assess applications.
- (c) A pool of panel members will be recruited by a transparent and open invitation process, selected by the ETD committee and approved by the Professional Board for Social Work. Panel members must be trained in the application of the CPD policy.
- (d) Members of the CPD Assessment Panel will assess each application and allocate a points as per the criteria of the CPD assessment tool.

11.3.2 Individual activities

- (a) A pool of subject matter experts will be recruited by a transparent and open invitation process, selected by the ETD committee and approved by the Professional Board for Social Work. Subject matter experts must be trained in the application of the CPD policy.
- (b) Individual PoEs will be assessed and moderated by the approved subject matter experts as per the criteria of the CPD assessment tool.
- (c) Points will be allocated to activities as per the criteria of the CPD assessment tool.

11.4 Training providers

11.4.1 The providers of CPD activities are responsible for:

- (a) submitting their service provider/company profile with their first application and after that only on request;
- (b) the quality and appropriate level of the CPD activity;
- (c) completion of the CPD activity;
- (d) providing certificates to all participants, reflecting the approval number, the number of CPD points, date of the activity, name and registration number of the participants (see Annexure B for an example to guide CPD providers);
- (e) ensuring that attendance is monitored and registers are kept for three (3) years following the CPD activity. The original register may be requested for validation or a compliance check;
- (f) evaluating the CPD activity.

- 11.4.2 Should there be any changes to the content, duration or facilitators/presenters of an activity approved for continuing professional development (CPD) before the expiry date, the SACSSP must be informed and a new application has to be submitted to assessment

12. CATEGORIES OF CPD ACTIVITIES AND POINT ALLOCATIONS

There are two categories of CPD activities – group and individual activities. Social workers and social auxiliary workers are required to keep a Portfolio of Evidence (PoE) for all approved group and individual activities attended.

12.1 Group activities

- 12.1.1 A group activity is an organised event with at least three (3) practitioners where synchronous learning takes place. The aim is to share information, building knowledge, developing skills and/or influencing attitudes on a subject of professional interest. It can be offered either face to face or on a virtual platform, such as Zoom and Microsoft Teams.

- 12.1.2 Group activities include conferences, workshops, seminars, short learning programmes, group discussions and information sessions. These activities require approval from the CPD Assessment Panel prior to the commencement of the activity.

- 12.2.3 Types of group activities:

- (a) A conference/congress/symposium/seminar is a gathering of people who meet in a local, regional, provincial, national or international context to discuss a relevant/particular topic. A conference may be face to face, online synchronous or asynchronous, or hybrid. Minimum duration of two (2) hours up to a maximum duration of five (5) days.
- (b) A workshop refers to a gathering at which a group of people engage in intensive discussions and activities on a particular subject with the purpose of analysing existing knowledge, expanding the knowledge base through new ideas, sharpening of skills and building of competencies. The intention is to address policy, practice and educational challenges. Non-credit bearing short courses of no more than five (5) days on a particular topic is also considered as a workshop. The minimum duration of four (4) hours up to a maximum duration of 5 days.
- (c) A group discussion is a gathering of a minimum of three (3) and a maximum of 25 people. It must be structured and focus on a relevant topic, which may include policies, legislation, book reviews, journal articles, case studies and sharing of best practice models. Minimum duration of one (1) hour up to a maximum duration of four (4) hours. NOTE: This is the only category where an application can include more than one date and topic. However, the group discussions must be for the same group of persons, be of the same duration and the programme structured in the same way.
- (d) An information session is a gathering of three (3) or more people where information on a particular topic is presented. The communication tends to be one-way but may allow for questions. Minimum duration of one (1) hour up to a maximum duration of three (3) hours.
- (e) Group and online activities facilitated by professionals registered with other professional bodies may also be submitted for approval and allocation of CPD points from the (SACSSP). The activity will be assessed and CPD points will be allocated according to the criteria set out in this Policy.

12.2 Individual activities

- 12.2.1 Individual activities refer to those activities completed on an individual basis, inclusive of online activities. The individual must motivate the relevance of the activity for continuing professional development (CPD) in a written format. The CPD Assessment Panel reserves the right not to allocate points.

- 12.2.2 Types of individual activities:

- (a) Self-study of scientific articles and books: require reflection on the contents either through a questionnaire in the particular journal (if available) or the SACSSP's guideline (FORM E.2.4).
- (b) Formal learning programme: includes a whole qualification on any relevant topic related to the working environment with proof of registration, progress and successful completion of a full qualification. For studies towards a Master's degree qualification CPD points will be allocated for a maximum of three (3) years and towards a Doctoral programme for five (5) years. For a post-graduate diploma CPD points will be allocated for a maximum of two (2) years. Additional points will be allocated on the successful completion of a qualification.
- (c) External examination: assessing postgraduate studies.
- (d) Learning material/manual: development of learning material/manuals for training purposes and review of existing learning material/manuals, providing written information on the process followed, research done and the final product.
- (e) Short learning programmes: all short programmes, whether credits are awarded or not inclusive of skills programmes.
- (f) Paper presentations: include a written paper presented in a plenary or breakaway session, guest lecturer at a higher education institution, introductory presentation in a panel session, poster presentation, web-based presentation or video production.
- (g) Preparation, presentation and facilitation of individual and group activities
- (h) Research: refers to an investigation by one or more persons into a particular field or area of practice to obtain facts that will inform practice and improve service delivery, which culminated in best practice models and/or publications.
- (i) Authorship: entails publications in books, in scientific or practice journals, authored as a sole author, a co-author, editor or contributor (including training manuals and protocols).
- (j) Peer reviews: involve commenting on the professional activities and work of colleagues upon formal request, including monographs, manuscripts and book reviews.
- (k) Position paper/legislative and policy analysis: responding in writing to policies and legislative issues reflecting a critical analysis in order to influence or shape policies and legislation.
- (l) Membership: includes evidence of being a registered and active member of any international, national, regional or local organisation which protects and promotes the professional interests of the profession and professionals.
- (m) Individual online activities: the activity takes place on a learning management or other online system where participants engage with the content at their own pace. The content must contain video recordings of lectures/presentations, video clips or any other visual material relevant to the topic. Different facilitators can be utilised and additional reading material can be included. The facilitator may set a time frame for completing the activity. The individual online activity should make provision for the following:
  - (i) participants to receive login details and a pass word to access the platform,
  - (ii) tracking the online participation,
  - (iii) to return to any portion of the online activity at any given time.
  - (iv) completion of the online activity should include completion of all modules and tasks of that activity.
  - (v) generating a certificate with the name and surname of the participant, topic of the activity, date of completion, CPD approval number and CPD points allocated once the facilitator is satisfied that the participant has gained the necessary knowledge/skills.
- (n) Individual activities facilitated by professionals registered with other professional bodies may also be submitted for approval and allocation of CPD points from the SACSSP. The activity will be assessed and CPD points will be allocated according to the criteria set out in this Policy.

13. ASSESSMENT AND POINT ALLOCATION OF CPD ACTIVITIES

13.1 Approval of CPD activities

- 13.1.1 CPD group activities are approved after being assessed by the CPD Assessment Panel and points awarded according to the set criteria of this policy.
- 13.1.2 CPD points for individual activities are awarded according to the set criteria in this policy after the PoE was requested, submitted and assessed by the CPD Assessment Panel.
- 13.1.3 Individual online CPD activities may be submitted by providers for approval after being assessed by the CPD Assessment Panel and points awarded according to the set criteria in this policy.
- 13.1.4 Social workers and social auxiliary workers are required to keep a Portfolio of Evidence (PoE) for all CPD activities attended.

13.2 Outcomes of assessment of CPD activities

The CPD Assessment Panel, after assessing an application decides on the outcome which may be one of the following:

- (a) Assessment suspended: when the application is incomplete and more information is required;
- (b) not approved: when the application does not meet the requirements for a CPD group activity as defined in this policy; or
- (c) approved: when the application meets the requirements for a CPD group activity, as defined in this policy.

13.3 Points allocation for CPD activities

13.3.1 Group activities

When a CPD group activity is approved, CPD points are awarded in accordance with the following criteria (also see FORM E.2.2: CPD: Assessment of CPD activity (Annexure A) and also available at www.sacssp.co.za):

- (a) the depth of learning
- (b) presenter credibility;
- (c) learner assessment;
- (d) participation method;
- (e) appropriateness of content to professional development
- (f) ethics; and
- (g) skills development.

13.3.2 Point calculation

- 13.3.2.1 The CPD points per day are calculated from the total of the allocated scores based on the criteria as indicated in paragraph 13.3.1 (and FORM E.2.2) ÷ 2.6 (weight) which allows for a maximum of eight (8) CPD points per CPD activity per day.
- 13.3.2.2 Calculation of multiple day activities: total number of points per day as per the formula indicated in paragraph 13.3.2.1 x the number of days of the CPD activity (e.g. 8 CPD points per day x 5 days = 40 CPD points)
- 13.3.2.3 Calculation for activities less than 6 hours: total number of points per day as per the formula indicated in paragraph 13.3.2.1 ÷ 6 x the total number of hours of the CPD activity (e.g. 8 points ÷ 6 x 4 hours = 5.3 (that will be rounded off to 5.5))

- 13.3.2.4 Point allocation for presenters: presenters of CPD group activities will accumulate 50% of the CPD points allocated to the CPD activity (e.g. if 8 CPD points are allocated to a CPD activity, the presenter will accumulate 4 CPD points for that CPD activity).

13.3.3 Individual activities

Individual CPD activities are assessed and if approved by the CPD Assessment Panel points are allocated according to the set criteria of this policy.

CPD points are allocated to individual activities according to Table 1 below. Proof of attendance, the programme and framework of the content and a written motivation of how the activity contributed to the practitioner's continuing professional development (CPD) must be included in the PoE.
